

Liberty National Bank (LNB), <http://www.WeAreLiberty.Bank> will track types of visitors by collecting electronic data. LNB does not use "cookies" to collect and track visitor personal information. We do use "cookies" to validate enrollments into our online banking service.

We recognize the importance of protecting children's identities and privacy online. Our website is not directed towards children, and we do not knowingly collect or maintain personal information from children viewing our website.

Nonpublic and personal information is collected from you at the time an application for a loan or deposit account is submitted; at the time an online banking session is conducted; and at the time you submit personal information via an e-mail. Liberty National Bank does not solicit personal information, account information or other nonpublic information over the Internet, via email or through any other undisclosed manner.

When personal information is collected for processing your enrollment, an application, a business transaction or your request for additional information, that information will be used for the purpose of serving your banking needs and providing future services and request. LNB does not sell or share customer information with any nonaffiliated third parties, except with contracted third party service providers. These entities are required to execute a confidentiality agreement before exchange of information is granted and they agree to adhere to LNB's privacy policy, practices and procedures. LNB does not disclose any nonpublic personal information about its customers or former customers to any person, any entity or law enforcement agency except as permitted by law.

We take the following steps to ensure the privacy and accuracy of the information collected from or about you: LNB limits employee access to confidential customer financial information to employees with a business reason for knowing such information. LNB employees are trained to understand the importance of customer financial privacy and to properly handle confidential information from improper disclosure. Ensuring your financial privacy is of vital importance to Liberty National Bank.

Electronic information you must submit via our online banking within the service is protected by encryption technology which scrambles account information, access codes and passwords to reduce the possibility of access by unauthorized individuals.

You may review the information we collect about you and correct any errors in that information by reviewing your bank statements and or any other correspondence from us and notifying us of any inaccurate or outdated information at the address or phone number on your statements. If you find that your account information is not correct, current, or complete, please call us at 855-351-2265 or write to us 629 SW "C" Avenue, Lawton, Oklahoma 73501.

If you have any questions about your personal information or would like to inform us about the potential misuse of your personal information, you may do so by sending a letter to the Compliance Officer, Liberty National Bank, 629 SW "C" Avenue, Lawton, Oklahoma 73501 or by calling us at 855-351-2265.
