Shanna loves watching people's dreams come true which is why she excels in her position as Mortgage Officer with Liberty National Bank. Shanna began her banking career in 1984 and has held many positions in the banking industry to better understand customers and their needs. She began in the mortgage department in 2000 as a loan processor and found her passion in helping people. She was promoted to Mortgage Officer in 2019.

Shanna is an active member of her church in Chickasha. She and her husband are very much involved with their community and love volunteering for non-profit and fund raising events. When not volunteering, she and her husband enjoy being involved with the Saturday Night Cruisers Car Club and showing off their classic automobiles.

Shanna states "the people in this community make this area a great place to live and be involved in and can't imagine living anywhere else."
