Cathy's longevity in the financial industry spans almost 40 years of service and joined Liberty National Bank in 2019 as a Sales Manager. Prior to LNB, Cathy held a variety of positions during her years in the industry. Upon graduation from college she began in the Consumer Loan Department and later moved to a Mortgage Lending Originator. Because of her excellent customer service skills in new account sales, she became a Branch Manager in 2000 and then an Area Sales Manager in 2008.

Cathy enjoys the outdoors and is an avid sports fan of Oklahoma University and Oklahoma City Thunder but also enjoys watching golf. On Sundays, you will find her at Geronimo Baptist Church where she teaches an adult Sunday School class and is a music leader for the praise team.

Cathy graduated from Cameron University and has had the opportunity to attend many leadership courses and seminars during her long career in banking.
