Chris has a long career in the financial industry, spanning almost 35 years. He joined Liberty National Bank in 2012 as the Chief Lending Officer. Because of his vast experience in the banking industry having served as a Regional President previously, he was very well qualified to take on this leadership role. Chris also chairs the Loan Committee, Loan Review Committee, and Executive Loan Committee, as well as serving on the ALCO and Executive committees. He has also been a member of the Board of Directors since 2012.

Chris has been very involved with the financial industry over the years having served on the Board of Directors of the Oklahoma Bankers Association Lending School and Commercial Lending School in addition to other committees. He also currently serves on the Pac and Legislative Committee of the CBAO and chairs the Rural Oklahoma Leaders Alliance.

Chris resides in Duncan and has served on the Duncan Public Schools Foundation Board, United Way of Southwest Oklahoma Board, March of Dimes past chairman, a member of the Duncan Area Economic Foundation, and a Chamber of Commerce Ambassador.

Chris graduated from the University of Oklahoma with a BBA in Finance. He also attended the Graduate School of Banking of the South at Louisiana State University.
