Tom's financial career began in Norman, Oklahoma almost 45 years ago before transferring to Lawton, Blanchard and now Chickasha where he serves as Market President. Tom has always enjoyed his work in commercial loans and has an abundance of knowledge to best help customers realize their goals.

Tom joined Liberty National Bank in 1992 and has had the pleasure of building out two branch offices. While Tom's current role is Market President, he states that anytime you have been in the financial field as long as he has, you have the opportunity to work in every department. This allows him the ability to understand the challenges each of the departments face to further build out a strong team to help customers.

During Tom's career he has been involved in numerous community and civic activities. He has had the privilege of serving on the Boards of the United Way, Hospital Foundation, Economic Development Council, Pioneer Library System and School Foundation. He has also served as President for the Blanchard Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis, and Rotary Club. In addition, he has had the honor of serving on several committees for the city government.

Tom graduated with a Business degree from Southwestern Oklahoma State University with minors in Accounting and Marketing. He has also attended graduate programs at the University of Texas and Oklahoma City University as well as real estate appraisal courses from the Institute of Real Estate Appraisers and the University of Oklahoma. Tom further enhanced his education by attending several bank related courses over the years offered by the industry.
