Cody will serve as a Loan Officer for Liberty National Bank's Elgin location. Cody began his working career while in middle school working large animals at a veterinary clinic in Porter Hill. Upon graduating college he taught Special Education and was a football and baseball coach for Eisenhower Middle School. Deciding to venture out, Cody transitioned into the business world by owning and supervising two apartment complexes prior to joining LNB. With his diverse background in agriculture, construction, real estate and education he is a natural fit for the LNB lending team.

Cody is very involved in his church. He has served as a youth pastor and enjoys preaching upon occasion. He also loves spending time with his wife and three children.

Cody has a Bachelors of Science from Cameron University and a Masters Degree from Southwestern Oklahoma State University.
