

Tara Strawderman

Teller Operations Coordinator

Tara.Strawderman@LNBOk.com

580.585.6231

Tara began her banking career in 2010 and has served in a variety of positions before joining LNB in 2022 as the Teller Operations Coordinator. Prior to LNB she held positions including Customer Care Representative, Retail Banker, Trainer, Branch Manager, Operations and Call Center. With her well-rounded portfolio she is a natural fit for her current position. She enjoys solving problems and finding solutions to better serve our customers.

Tara loves to volunteer for events around the city and for her son's school. She also loves spending time outdoors and with her family.

Tara has an Associate Degree in Business from Oklahoma City Community College. She is continuing her education and is currently working towards her Bachelor's Degree. She has had the opportunity to attend many seminars and conferences over the years in the banking industry as well as several leadership training programs.

